In the December 1993 Playboy, radio and television talk-show host, Rush Limbaugh, rightly pointed out that he joined a continuum of well-respected individuals as a Playboy interviewee or what has been called an "inadvertent" sponsor. Inadvertent sponsors are respectable Playboy interviewees whose names lend credibility to what is, on the evidence, the oldest and most influential marketer of sexualized child imagery in American history.<sup>1</sup> With the appearance of the immensely popular Limbaugh, a moral conservative spokesman, Playboy succeeded in gaining a broader vista for its carefully crafted ideas, including lowering the age of consent.<sup>2</sup>

The recent move by the Department of Justice to weaken child pornography laws<sup>3</sup> is in harmony with decades of Playboy efforts, including the systematic cover-up of pedophiles as Playboy child abuse experts. The following draft chronology was hastily collected in order to inform the public and to encourage Mr. Limbaugh to break through Playboy's spin control of its mass media image by exposing its child abuse history to millions of Limbaugh viewers and listeners. Mr. Limbaugh's appearance in Playboy may parallel the old lemon story if he squeezes those lemons to give the public lemonade.

While at first the pedophile movement seems statistically insignificant, its leadership is allied with the larger mass of pornography/sexual freedom/homosexual rights advocates whose ideas have reshaped law and public policy nationwide.<sup>4</sup> The Netherlands, which are always looked to as a model for social reform, recently passed legislation lowering the age of consent from 16 to 12 years<sup>5</sup> and publishes the American-Dutch academic pedophiles' journal: Paidika: The Journal of Paedophilia. Under the umbrella of the sexual freedom movement, influential pedophiles work to remove all age of consent laws (see the last page of this report). This brief chronology represents but a small part of the academic pedophile information flow—which is quite substantial.

We are piecing together the players in the pedophile puzzle for examination by people concerned with child welfare and protection. These few pages are meant to urge the reader to ponder whether the growing power of pedophile advocates represents a threat which warrants attention and action at this time. And, whether the current Department of Justice's treatment of child pornography, children's safety and parental rights are in children's interests.

BACKGROUND TO THE STUDY

1977 The British Psychological Society Conference on Love & Attraction, Swansea, Wales: J. Reisman delivered a research paper on child pornography in Playboy 1954-1977.<sup>6</sup> Academicians employed by pornographers<sup>7</sup> concealed their ties and presented "scientific" papers advocating the legalization of child pornography, prostitution and an end to the age of consent. They carried their "scientific" claims for early childhood sexuality to lawmakers and fellow academicians via both legitimate and pornographic media. Following these disturbing academic papers advocating sex with children, Reisman began years of study of child-adult sex ideas in popular and academic writings, including those of prominent academic pedophiles and pederasts. Three key research findings emerged:

THREE KEY FINDINGS

1. The Kinsey Reports (1953 & 1954), the "scientific" basis of modern sex education was based on fraud and the sexual abuse of 317 infants and children. See Kinsey, Sex & Fraud (Reisman & Eichel, 1990).
2. Playboy magazine systematically sexualized children in photographs, cartoons and illustrations, beginning in May 1954. See Images of Children, Crime and Violence in Playboy, Penthouse and Hustler, U.S. Department of Justice Grant No. 84-JN-AX-K007 (Reisman, 1990).
3. The Advocate (America's mainstream homosexual magazine) systematically advocated homosexual child sexual abuse from the early 70s. See A Content Analysis of Two Decades of The Advocate (Reisman, 1992).

A BRIEF CHRONOLOGY OF SOME ARTICLES AND EVENTS Involving Academic Pedophiles PLAYBOY MAGAZINE<sup>8</sup> & THE JOURNAL OF PAEDOPHILIA

1953 December, Playboy Begins: Publisher, Hugh Hefner claims Kinsey's Sexual Behavior in the Human Male (1948)<sup>9</sup> radicalized, inspired and instructed him on human sexuality. From that foundation Hefner said, he began the Playboy empire, bringing Kinsey's "scientific" view of human sexuality from academia to the mainstream. By 1954, child-adult sex is glamorized in cartoons, by the 70s photographs of child-adult sex appear as "art" and cinema, and in 1977 the nude "Playmate" appears in child photos (3,045 Child Characters: 1,323 Photographs, 1,196 Cartoons & 523 Illustrations from 53-84). Table 1 identifies children's ages in Playboy photographs and illustrations, 1953-1984, most in sexual scenes.

1975 Playboy Press Publishes Child Pornography: In Playboy's publication, Sugar and Spice a 10-year-old Brooke Shields is displayed "nude...her face erotically made up....a young vamp and a harlot, a seasoned sexual veteran...erotic...sensual sex symbol." (See, US Magazine, January 19, 1982, p. 68). Brooke Shields is provocatively displayed as "Pretty Baby" in several subsequent Playboy issues.

1976 November Playboy<sup>9</sup>. James Petersen, the "Playboy Advisor [who] is USA's most widely read men's sex education resource"<sup>10</sup> prints a letter he says is written by a "high school" girl who has sadistic sex with a boyfriend while her mother watches. Instead of advising therapy and criminal investigation of the (incestuous) mother, Mr. Petersen advises on ways to make the youngster's sexualized pain more intense.

1977 June Playboy: Alongside the centerfold big "Playmate" are photographs of her as little "Playmate"--a baby, toddler, teen--Playboy's "age strip tease" climaxing when the page opens to the nude big Playmate. This little-to-big girl (or big-to-little) "biography" written in a child's scrawl, becomes a regular magazine feature. Reisman points out during speeches that when you open to the centerfold, you open to a child. June 7, The Playmate Of The Year Child Begins: Roughly 55% of the children in the "Strip Tease By Age" inserts in 1977 were under 16 years of age, the largest group being between 3-7 years, the latter the most common age of first incestuous sexual assault.

1985-86 Playboy: Scores of Playboy articles on the Attorney General's Commission on Pornography strongly protest the Commission plan to raise the age for nude models to 21-years. Which lobby got congress to vote that the legal age for nude models would not be 21 but 18-years-old? (There is no known Washington lobby of 18 year-olds which fought for their right be pornography models.)

1985 Playboy: After the 1985 leak of Reisman's Department of Justice, Juvenile Justice and delinquency Prevention report, Images of Children, Crime & Violence in Playboy, Penthouse and Hustler, which fully documents Playboy's child rape jokes, cartoons and photographs by stranger and kin, Playboy child pornography photographers and cartoonists suddenly take up other subjects. The littlest Playmate-baby-to-adolescent photographs which had been routinely juxtaposed next to the big nude Playmate since 1977 disappear.

1986 April 10, The Leaked Gray Memo: Representing Playboy & Penthouse, "The Media Coalition" employs a well-connected Washington DC. lobbying firm called Gray & Co. to:

THE LEAKED "GRAY & CO. MEMO"

...discredit...the organizations and individuals who have begun to seriously disrupt [Playboy, Penthouse, et al.]. Quiet efforts must be undertaken to persuade the Attorney General, the White House and the leaders of both parties...they should shy away from publicly endorsing the document." [Investigative reporter, Susan Trento says, as American University abandoned her<sup>11</sup>] Reisman... made a most appealing target for "discrediting." Gray and Company charged the Media Coalition between $50,000 and $75,000 for the campaign. For this particular account, much of the cost was borne by Playboy; Penthouse also provided funding (The Power House, 1992, p. 197).

1986 July, The AG's Report is Published: While accepting the report's "hard core" pornography findings, by January, Attorney General Edwin Meese announces he read Playboy and Penthouse as a youth (Penthouse was not published until Mr. Meese was 35-years-old), they are not "obscene" and by today's standards they "would seem quite tame" (The Baltimore Evening Sun, January 29, 1987).

1987 THE JOURNAL OF PAEDOPHILIA (PAIDIKA) Begins. Its Editors Include Famous USA Academic "Sexuality Experts" The "Statement of Purpose" reads: The starting point of Paidika is necessarily our consciousness of ourselves as paedophiles....It is our contention that the oppression of paedophilia is...[a] dangerous...part of the larger repression of sexuality... But to speak today of paedophilia, which we understand to be consensual intergenerational sexual realationships, is to speak of the politics of oppression... Visual images that are a part of a paedophile sensibility are also being assailed....The Editors." (p. 1-2)

1987 Autumn, The Journal of Paedophilia. (JoP) Pedophile editor, Lawrence Stanley,<sup>12</sup> writes "The Hysteria Over Child Pornography and Paedophilia" asserting, "children have enjoyed ....adult-child sexual encounters....being nude before a camera" (pp.16-27).

1988 September, Playboy: Lawrence Stanley's Journal of Paedophilia (JoP) article is edited by James Petersen for Playboy and presented as an investigative report of "The Child-Pornography Myth."<sup>13</sup> Petersen deceives his Playboy readers about Stanley's credentials; "The author began researching the issue of child pornography in 1984....he talked with lawyers....sex researchers....law enforcement...in Europe and the United States..." Petersen omits pedophilia from Stanley's biography (p. 44). Playboy conducts major attack on Reisman, claiming it has never sexualized children in cartoons or photographs. However, the shift from emphasis on 3-7 year-olds is glaring.

1990 Sept/Oct. The Columbia [University] Journalism Review: Reporter, Debbie Nathan, nominates and presents JoP's Lawrence Stanley with the "1989 Free Press Association investigative reporting award" for his Playboy child pornography expose. Prominent FPA member and journalism chairman, Professor C. McDaniel, strongly contests Stanley's award based on the canons of ethical journalism, since the article was "advocacy" and Stanley had a "special interest" in the "outcome of the investigation." Petersen insists it was "not necessary" to reveal Stanley's pedophile bias to FPA and/or Playboy readers.

1991 March. The Department of Defense Report on Homosexuality and Personnel Security: Kinsey, Pomeroy, Gebhard, Martin, Gebhard, Ford & Beach and Bell & Weinberg and Journal of Pedophilia editors, self proclaimed pedophiles<sup>14</sup> and pedophile advocates, Drs. Money and Bullough, are the experts cited by the Department of Defense on "scientific" findings on normal human sexual conduct.

1991 Spring, The Journal of Paedophilia: Dr. John Money, Johns Hopkins Professor Emeritus, Psychiatry and Pediatrics creator of Johns Hopkins Sexual Disorders Clinic and Penthouse consultant, contends that man-boy sex is an "overflow of parental pairbonding into erotic pairbonding (p. 13)." Money, by instituting the Disorders Clinic, wants to give "leeway to judges" to keep pedophiles out of prison (p. 12). For example, American University president and pedophile, Dr. Richard Berendzen became "physically and psychologically sound" after three weeks at Money's clinic.<sup>15</sup> Money further states that pedophilia is normal, he wants to end age of consent laws. (p 13) and to legalize sex murder (should a sadomasochistic pedophile or other "couple" have a "death pact" and one die) if consent was obtained (p. 7). Money's in effect to legalize the murder of children by pedophiles.

1991 September, Playboy: Playboy Mr. Bill Andriette, editor of the North American Man Boy Love Association's NAMBLA Newsletter and The Journal of Paedophilia. is Playboy's expert investigator for "Are You A Child Pornographer?" Andriette warns "the Feds have now also criminalized a range of images that no one could possibly view as harmful to society or to children." Petersen conceals Andriette's pedophilia, defining him only as "features editor of The Guide, a Boston-based gay magazine" (p. 56).

1992 March, Playboy again publishes Stanley in a letter as a child abuse expert, undaunted by Professor McDaniel's protest in 1990. Andriette, Petersen and Stanley cite each other in their call to reverse US. vs. Stephen A. Knox child pornography conviction. Petersen hides Stanley's and Andriette's pedophilia, warning, "When the government looks at [Knox's] innocent material with a pedophile's eyes, justice suffers." (p 46). (One year later the pedophile view is shared by Attorney General Reno in asking the Supreme Court to reverse Knox.)

1992 June, Playboy: In "Presumed Guilty," unknown author, Harry Stein, writes about child abuse as a fantasy. Playboy long impaired marriage and eroticized children in the home.<sup>16</sup> Now Stein exploits fears of men with Playboy at home who may worry about such child abuse charges in case of divorce. He warns, "sexual abuse of children is the dirtiest, deadliest trick in divorce court" (p. 74).

1992 October, Playboy: In "Cry Incest" Debbie Nathan asserts incest is a minor problem. (Recall Nathan nominated Lawrence Stanley for the FPA award). Playboy glamorized incest for years.<sup>17</sup> Now Nathan blames the children. "Myths....Such tales express peoples anxieties about their own infantile aggressive and sexual impulses... .improbable...[they feel] guilt about normal sexuality" (162).

1993 March, Playboy: Vampire novelist Anne Rice is interviewed saying, "I do love violence, I absolutely love it" (p. 53). Playboy has long promoted child-adult sex and sadism. In Rice's book her 13 year-old heroine dresses like a child, has sex with "male relations -- old, young, and middle-aged...in a graveyard having sex with her 15-year-old cousin and later that night with another cousin's husband" (The News & Observer, 11/21/93).

1993 March, Playboy: An unknown Matthew Childs, says "Adolescence doesn't exist...[age of consent laws] signaled a separation of sexuality from human behavior" and minors are healthier if they "don't have to let their parents know about their [sexual] lives." Playboy glamorized sex with youths for years. Now Child's says age of consent laws reflect the "social-purity league" (p. 41).

1993 September: Press releases information about Attorney General Janet Reno's call for weakened child pornography laws. Reno is aligned philosophically and legalistically with Playboy, Stanley, Andriette, Petersen, the organized pedophile movement, in their demand the Knox child pornography conviction be returned to the lower court, citing what has been called "the child's responsibility" test.

1993 November: Congress unanimously condemns Reno's view that a child be required to be "engaged in the conduct of lasciviously exhibiting their (or someone else's) genitals or pubic areas" before a film or photo is considered illegal. Reno also moves to weaken remaining indecency statutes (The Washington Times, November 25, 1993, A1-20).

1993 December, Playboy: "Rush Limbaugh" interview. While much needs to be said about this issue. However, as seen in Table 4 above, the "centerfold as a child" triptych returns as a little Brownie. Note that the child playmate is again being displayed at ages 3-7 and in this same issue a man has sex with his friend's daughter; anal sodomy is "thrillingly" described for several alleged women, girls, boys and men. Anal sodomy is a painful and key way to contract AIDS yet is still glamorized in the magazine. Images of pseudo-lesbian sadism dominate.<sup>18</sup> All this coincides with the liberalized signs from the Department of Justice while its Child Sexual Abuse and Exploitation Unit and the child protection gains made from 1986 to 1988 are in danger of collapse.

STATE BY STATE & INTERNATIONALLY

The Following legislation has been stumbled upon due to the author's travels and informal leads which were validated. The new laws are often framed as "Children are not the property of their parents." There appear to be no official data collections underway by any institution to ascertain the status of laws relating to child protections.

Oregon Legislation (how many other states?) is "quietly" preparing a bill resembling the California one, permitting the state to award children to adults who: "made available to the child, food, clothing, shelter...and which relationship continued on a day-to-day basis, through interaction, companionship, interplay and mutuality." This will permit children to be legally awarded to pedophiles.

California Legislation apparently permits children over 12-years to have personal lawyers and over 14 to judicially request a specific guardian--even without parental abuse. Who is monitoring this?

Minnesota Legislation debating H.F. 585, which legally protects "Sexual or affectional orientation, or familial status." To date, the only group to whom the law applies is pedophiles.

The University of Massachusetts at Amherst 1992: grants pedophiles and homosexuals protected status.

Is the public being lulled into a false sense of security regarding the AG's intentions for children? Are pedophiles organized nationwide?<sup>19</sup> Recent state legislation has emerged using new terms for special rights protection: "sexual or affectional orientation." But this terminology applies only to pedophiles. See John Money's definition of paedophilia:

...affectional paedophilia in layman's terms...the straight forward affectional attraction to children...a paedophilic attraction to children...an overflow of parental pairbonding into erotic pair bonding...the affectional relationship, in male paedophilia at least, is a fatherly relationship...with erotic or lover-lover pairbonding...a combination of affectionate love as well as the lust factor....The erotic phases out sometime after the child passes the age of puberty....A long-lasting affectionate kind of friendship ensues. In The Journal of Paedophilia (Spring 1991)

1993 October, Readers Digest: Child pornography and prostitution is so prevalent in Asian nations that a major feature appears in The Readers Digest which reports that men of the North American Man-Boy Love Association (NAMBLA) recruit Third World children for prostitution and pornography and sexually assault them. Many of these children die from sexually sadistic A pedophile, incarcerated in California for multiple child sexual abuse offenses, is quoted as saying NAMBLA helped him get children in Thailand where "thousands of kids" are available for sex.<sup>20</sup> Does a child sex lobby exist in the United States to mainstream pederasty and paedophilia? Can it happen? A short time ago, anal sodomy was understood as a dangerous, deviant practice, illegal in every state. Now, despite the deadly AIDS epidemic, less than half of our states consider sodomy to be criminal.

1993 Winter, The Journal of Paedophilia: How Dutch Pedophiles Reduced Age of Consent to 12. A Dutch pedophile explained in the JoP the way he and pedophile lobbyists worked behind the scenes to reduce the age of consent from 16 years to 12 years-of-age. They want to eliminate age of consent laws:

We were lobbying for greater change...behind the scenes, in particular by the Dutch Society for Sexual Reform (NVSH) and the gay rights movement....Mrs. Wille Swildens-Rozendaal of the Labor Party worked hard behind the scenes to make the argument prevail....This new law has not ended the matter....A committee of the Labor Party, chaired by Mrs....Rozendaal, and of which the [pedophile] author is a member, is studying possible proposals....a weak spot is...child protection agencies are entitled to make complaints....The Dutch public did not give one hint of protest, whereas it angrily objected to the [age-of-consent] bill that was announced in 1985.....Although radical legislative reform can not be expected at the moment a certain normalization, step by step, as regards the thinking on paedophilia [and ending age of consent is] achieved by the new law.

The Academic Pedophile Editors of The Journal Of Paedophilia, Summer 1987 Statement of Purpose:

Not only are our lives and culture under attack but proposals are afoot in the United States and Canada to criminalize even discussions of lowering the age of consent....we intend to demonstrate that paedophilia has been, and remains, a legitimate and productive part of the totality of human experience (p. 1-2).

Some tough questions that must be answered. Which respected, influential Americans are working "behind the scenes" to legalize adult-child sex? What is Attorney General Janet Reno's child agenda? We are obligated to ask who is the American equivalent of "Mrs. Willie Swildens-Rozendaal"?

CRUCIAL QUESTIONS

- Is a well-connected-funded American pedophile/pederast lobby "quietly" working to end age of consent and parental rights?
- Has the pedophile agenda long been marketed to mainstream America by the largest "men's entertainment magazine" in the nation?
- Has the presence of distinguished interviewees routinely been exploited to gain public approval for the magazine content?
- Do key leaders in President Clinton's Department of Justice pose a threat to children?

During her tenure, both AU president, Dr. Richard Berendzen and AU Psychology Department Chairman, Dr. Elliot McGinnies were charged criminally and confessed to crimes of a pedophile nature. According to his victim, Susan Allen, Dr. Berendzen used child pornography in his AU President's office as he talked with her about having sex with her children. The press largely ignored Professor McGinnies' confession to statutory rape of a 9-year-old girl in his trailer at a Maryland nudist colony (facilities eagerly frequented by pedophiles and child pornographers). McGinnies is a Professor Emeritus at AU and Berendzen now teaches, after receiving roughly a million dollars to step down from his presidency to serve on faculty.
